

TIMES PICTURE PAGE OF LIVE VIEWS AND NEWS

BORROWED BEAUTIES are found in Washington from every nation. Mme. Frederick Nano, wife of the Secretary of the Rumanian Legation here, is an attractive member of the diplomatic set.

"HELLO, NOBLE" is going to take the place of "Mister Speaker" when Congressman Clifford Ireland, chairman of the Congressional Shrine Committee, takes charge of his gang next June.

HOW REFRESHING to glide over the waves in the schooner "Elizabeth Howard," only New York entry in the Fishermen's Cup Races to be held at Gloucester, Mass., October 12.

THIS IS THE LIFE, says Harry Roper (center), son of former Internal Revenue Commissioner Dan Roper, who is shown resting after a day's hike with other West Pointers.

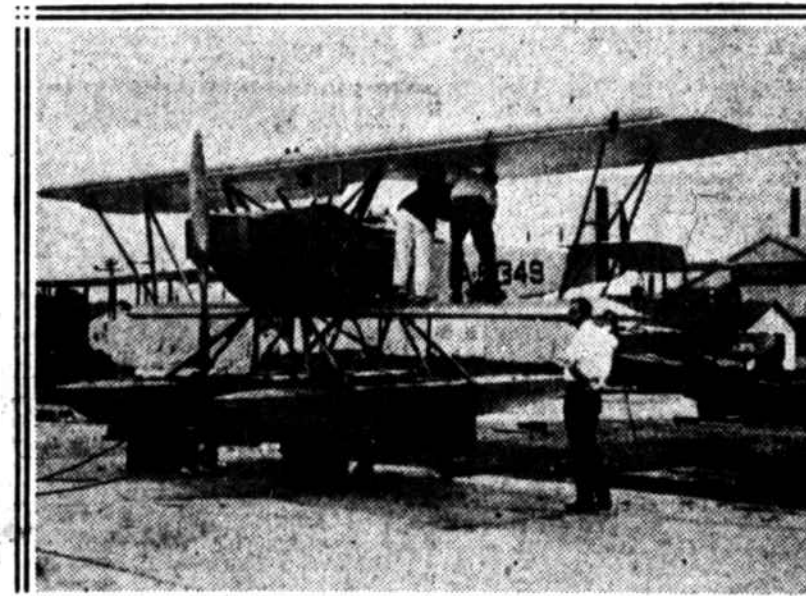

A REGULAR CIRCUS of her own was got together at the Rockville Fair by pretty Miss Mildred Garland, of Sargent road, Brookland, D. C. The animals wanted to follow her home. Blame 'em?

KEEP YOUR EYE on this maid, boys. She is Mary Constance Wagner, of Rockville, eight years old, but she beat all the grownups making bread at the Rockville Fair. She kneads the dough.

"HEY, YOU BILLY BAXTER" yelled Garry McGarry when the star of "Seventeen" failed to "register" properly. Next week's attraction at the Garrick will not look much like this. Left to right, George H. Trader, director; Martha McGraw, as "Baby Talk Lady;" Garry McGarry, manager; Percy Helton, as "Billy Baxter;" and Miss Ruth Hoffman, as "Jane."

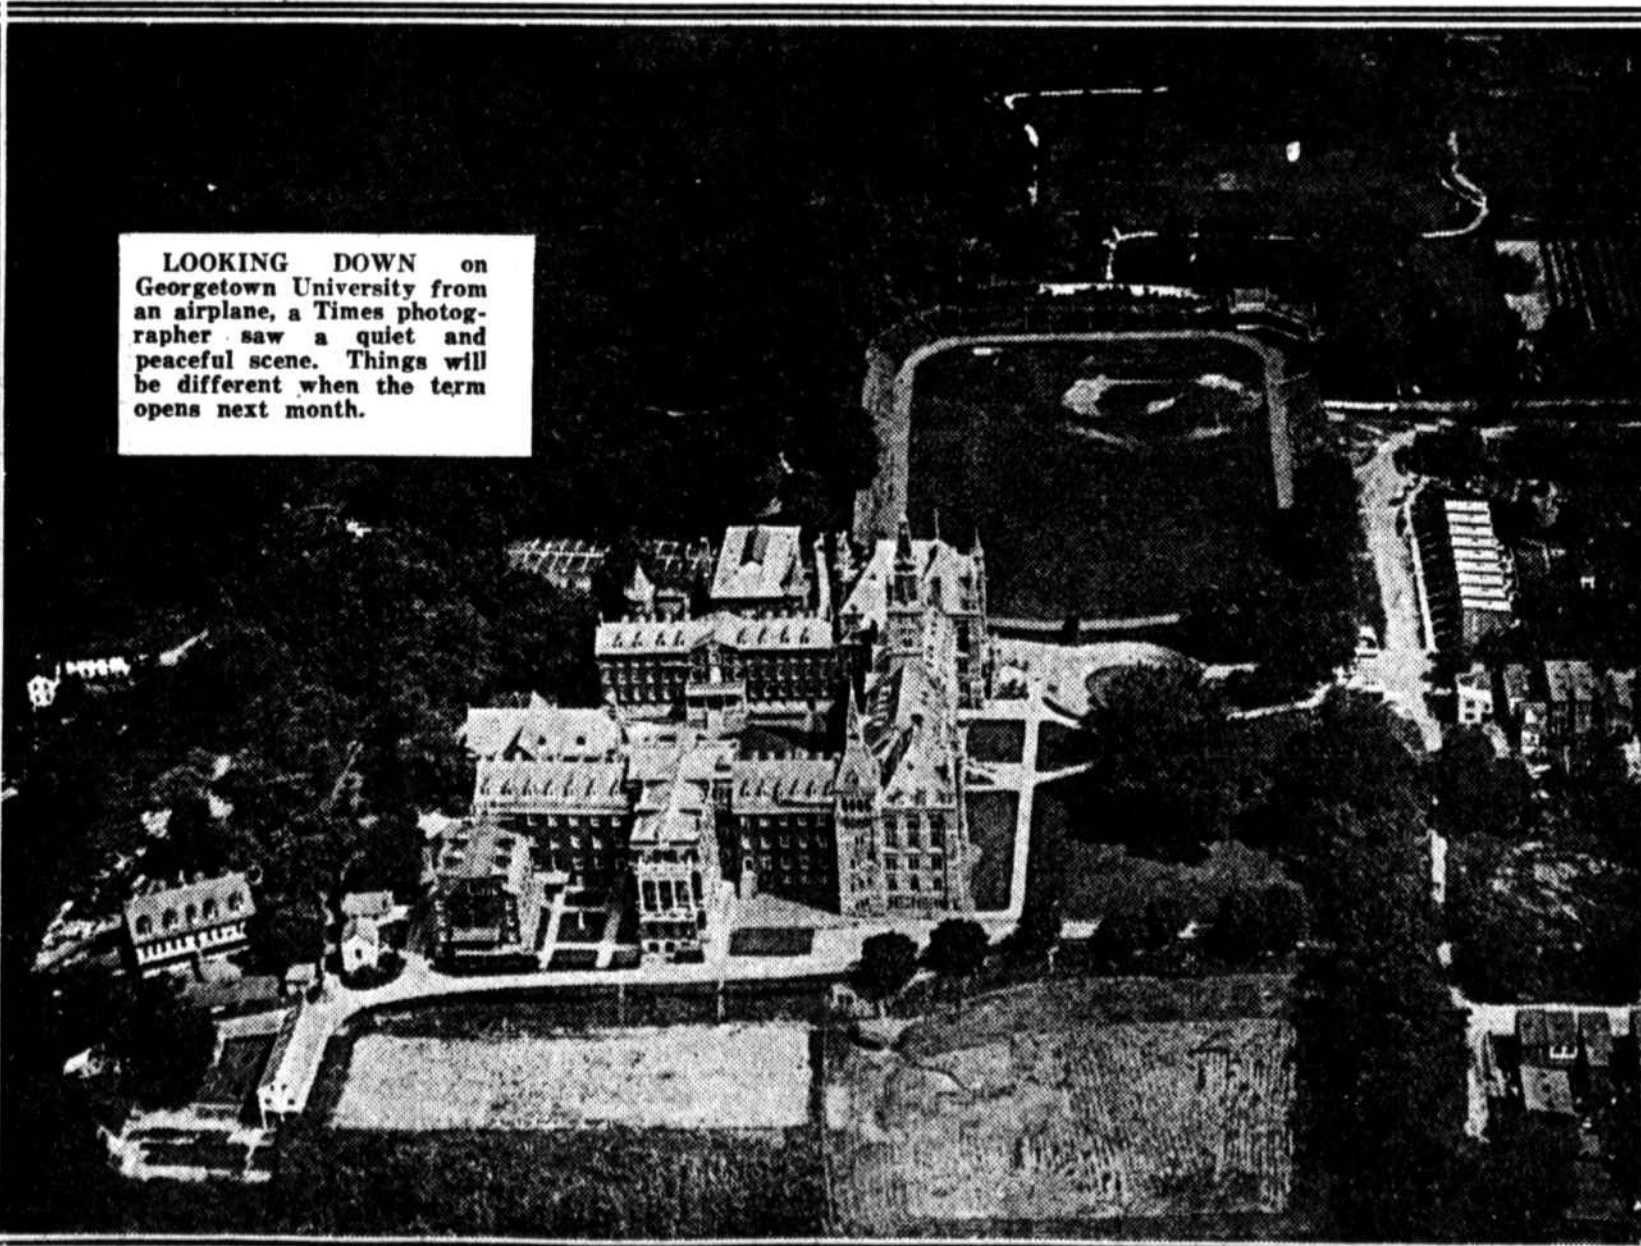

LET 'ER GO. She needs no pilot. This pilotless plane, now moored at the Naval Air Station, Anacostia, is the center of attraction for flyers at the local fields.

THE GOBLINS will get you if you don't watch out. This strange face on butt of captured Spanish cannon greets you as you enter the State, War, and Navy Building.

PASSING THE century mark today, Mrs. Catherine Anna Minnich, who knew President Lincoln, is being made happy by a birthday celebration at the National Lutheran Home here.

LOOKING DOWN on Georgetown University from an airplane, a Times photographer saw a quiet and peaceful scene. Things will be different when the term opens next month.

"DON'T LEAVE US," pleaded members of the Civitan Club when Major J. G. McGee, head of the Salvation Army here, announced his transfer to New York city.

See the News of the World

AT ALL LEADING THEATERS
SHOWING

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Released by Universal
Film Exchanges